THE Steubenville Gasette refuses to support Tilden and comes out fair and square against both him and the St. Louis plat-form. The editor does not propose to open letter from which we make the folstultify himself after the fashion of the "soft money" Bill Allen Democrats of West Virginia. He, like them, was for Old Bill and "more money," and he does not now swing his hat for Tilden and "hard money." Mr. Willey is a man of general scholarship, of well disciplined mind, and ripe experience. In his youth he graduated at Dickinson College, Pa., and afterwards studied law under the re-nowned Phillip Doddridge. He has seen much of the world and of public life, and his selection to the Presidency of the quite University would be the happy culmination of a long and honorable career.

THE FOURTH AT FAIRMONT.-In our notice in Saturday's issue of the way i which the 100th anniversary of American Independence will be celebrated at prominent points throughout this region of country, we omitted to mention the preparations making at Fairmont to do honto the day. Since then we have received the Fairmont Index containing the programme of 'arrangements for the 4th, by which we find that Fairmont will no t be behind her neighbors in the extent and character of her celebration. All the bells in Fairmont and Palatine will be rung at 9 o'clock A.M., and the "Star Spangled Banner" will be sung by a great concourse of people at the Court H. under the leadership of Capt. T. A. Fleming and Col. Ed. Moore. The people will move in procession through sev-Fair the streets to the Grounds, where they will be address-ed by Prof. W. R. White. Prof. T. C. Miller, and Lee P. Watson, Esq. The Rev. Mr. Gibbons will read the Declaration, and "Hail Columbia" will be sung by 2,000 voices. At night there will be a torch-light procession, and an illumination, together with a display of

A Selection from Mr. Tilden' Record as a Reformer.

The New York Herald, of Saturday, in speaking of the way in which the St. Louis Convention was carried for Tilden, makes the following observation:

makes the following observation:

The Governor carried the St. Lonis Convention by Cossack tactics. He rode down his opponents. They were assailed in every form. The "deliberations" of the convention recall the worst days of the Jacobin Club, and already there are rumors that the President of the convention will have to fight Sanset Cox. At one time it looked as if the President would order the arrest of all the anti-Tilden men. The policy was to win, and this policy was never abandoned. The treatment of every leading anti-Tilden man was harsh, and after Mr. Hendricks had declined the Vice Presidency he was rudely taken and forced upon the ticket to "help Tilden." The editor of the Richmond Enquirer, a leading Democratic newspaper, openly says that money was used to nominate the Governor, and expresses a hope that only half as much as was spent at St. Louis will be given to the canvass. The success of the Governor may, justify the tactics at St. Louis, and we inter from his little Albany speech that they are to be applied to the country at large. untry at large.

This increase of the Democratic majority in the brief space of two years, by a total of over 40,000, was a matter-for profound astonishment to the whole United States, excepting only a small band of faithful Democrata in New York city. To them, headed by Boss small band of faithful Democrats in New York city. To them, headed by Boss Tweed and Samuel J. Tilden, belongs the credit of the astonishing change. New York, October 20, 1869.

It was mainly on account of the tre-nendous frauds perpetrated in that year (1868) in New York city, that Congress passed an act (see Revised Statutes, sec. 2.011) providing for the appointment, by the United States Judges, of Supervisors in cities and towns of over 20,000 inhabi-It reduced the Democratic majority of 1868 from 60,578 to 23,147. Both yes were Presidential years. The Democra ic vote for Seymour, in the former year stood 108,316, and for Greeley, the latter year, 77,814. Even Tilden's election for Governor, 1874, the Democratic vote in New York city was only 87,436. In other words after a lapse of six years, the celebrated vote of 1864, fell short of itself, in 1874 about 18,000. There were United States Supervisors in 1872 and 1874, and hence the difficulty of getting back to the fig-ures of 1868. Thank fortune, there will be United States Supervisors this year also, as there are Congressmen to be
